BREMERTON CLUB

PRESENT FLAG TO VICTORIA KIWANIS

Stars and Stripes Will Hang With British Flag Over All Club Meetings

Fine Address Heard When Kiwanis Delegation Guests of Local Unit

Fulfilling a promise made when the two clubs met in happy reunion some time ago the Bremerton Kiwanis Club to-day sent a delegation to attend the regular weekly gathering of the Victoria body for the special purpose of making a presentation. At the luncheon held in the Dominion Hotel at the noon hour ten members of the Bremerton club presented a silken Stars and Stripes to float in friendly companionship with a British flag over every gathering of the Kiwanis Club here.

Mayor McCalk, of Bremerton, made the presentation to Kenneth Ferguson, president of the Victoria Club and in reply Mr. Ferguson pointed out that the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack stood for the eternal principles of liberty which demanded the utmost sacrifice from the peoples who owed them allegiance.

Kenneth Ferguson accepted the gift on behalf of the local unit of the Kiwanis organization. The thanks of the Victoria body were expressed in a motion of R. C. Nicholas, and seconded by Mayor Hayward. Mr. Nicholas referred to the value of the interchange of visits between Kiwanis Clubs in America and Canada, and voiced the gratitude of the Victoria club for the kindly sentiment that had prompted the gift.

Mayor Hayward, in seconding the vote of thanks, referred to the one hundred years of peace that marked the relationship of the peoples of the United States and the British Empire, and stated that the continuance of this co-operation was the best assurance of world peace in the days to come.

Eloquent Address

The first address was made by the Rev. A. Bennett, of Bremerton, who proved himself to be an orator of the first magnitude in an eloquent discourse on what the Stars and Stripes meant to the American people. The speaker referred to the peaceful co-operation between the British Empire and the Anglo-Saxon races represented by the emblems upon the wall.

Co-operation, he said, meant everything for the welfare of the world.

The meeting closed with the singing of "America" and "God Save the King." A large attendance was on hand at to-day's luncheon in honor of the Bremerton visitors.

SIXTY-MILE WIND PLAYS MANY PRANKS

In western and middle western cities showed their barometric readings with pride. Calgary on Sunday showed an even more stormy weather. Even at Le Pas, in the north, the thermometer stood at 74 degrees, an unusually warm mark at this time of the year.

The gale it was intimated was some of the delayed unpleasantness that the West has been accustomed to at an earlier period in other years. Yukon rivers ice-free in October, to the astonishment of old-timers, are now closing over. Yesterday the Yukon was down 23 degrees, after maintaining an unusual height for weeks past.

Locally the storm played freakish pranks on the city. Trees in various parts of the city, partly company with mother soil and gave up the struggle, lying broken with their roots high in the air. Telephone subscribers were cut off in the middle of conversations when lines parted company with poles, or the poles themselves, in a few cases, came tumbling down.

The storm king sent out scouts under every cave, and many a shingle and gutter guard came tumbling off its resting place to lie in disorder in the street. Street lights faltered on several streets and gave up the unequal contest. The night passed without fatalities, and the damage is light in comparison to the force of the gale and its length of duration.

Sixty-mile Wind

A rook of wind velocities and barometric readings at the Gonzales Hill Observatory this morning showed that the gale had increased in intensity during the night. For an hour between 8 and 9 o'clock last night the gale howled by at a rate of fifty-four miles an hour. Fifteen minutes after midnight this morning the gale belted up its girdle and slipped on ward at the rate of sixty miles an hour. This lasted for a short period only, and the velocity dropped down again to a steady fifty miles an hour for a considerable period.

the west and southwest. The probability is that the first blast of the winter season has struck Puget Sound. The wind drove a heavy rain out of the night.

All day car service was stopped for forty-five minutes in this city at the time when the mass of daily workers was riding in. This was caused by the short Christ in Edward lines south of Seattle, laid to wind and rain.

No damage of any consequence to shipping or waterfront structures was reported.

The wind at 5 a.m. was fifty-two miles an hour at Tacoma Island, and sixty miles an hour at North Head, according to reports received here.

ASSIZES OPEN WITH LIGHT LIST

Unusual interest attached to the calling of the petit jurors' roll. "Ladies and Gentlemen of the petit jury please answer to your names," called Sheriff H. H. Goggin, the first sheriff in Victoria, county who had been obliged to make use of the unusual prefix to his title of address.

Heleen M. Richards, Queen's Avenue, sole woman juror on the petit or any panel, was present to answer to her name when called. The sheriff found all present and the jurors were then released until 2:30 p.m. when the court will reopen to consider any true bills that may be presented to it by the Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury is headed by Alderman Albert E. Todd, foreman; Gordon E. Burdick, Charles Drummond, Charles P. Eagles, Butchess J. Gadsden, Wesley N. Mitchell, Robert J. Robertson, Henry R. Savage, Darrel W. Spence, Joseph D. Virtue, G. H. Richardson, Frederick Charles McQuade and Frederick Russell completing the thirteen names on the panel.

In instructing the Grand Jury as to its duty, Mr. Justice Murphy sketched the history of the three bills now before that body, and pointed out the usual rights of the jurors as to public buildings. He stated, following the usual custom, that Stanley Youson was committed from the Provincial Police Court on a charge of this year, when charged with the theft of a gramophone and a set of cobbler's tools. Daniel Matheson was committed from the Police Court in August of this year, when charged with the murder of a woman in relation to the death of Constance Pearl Barker. A little while killed in a street car accident on August 5, John Street, was committed for trial on June 25, charged with an offence against a juvenile.

In instructing the Grand Jury in relation to the three bills, Mr. Justice Murphy outlined what was in law a homicide, and as to the extent of negligence which would make for a culpable homicide, or manslaughter.

"There is no suggestion here, however, that Matheson had any intention of killing," he stated. "He was a man of good character, and his act was a culpable homicide, or manslaughter."

"It is the duty of a street car conductor to drive his car so as not to endanger the lives of the public. The onus is on the Crown to show that accused was negligent or was not, or that he was guilty of negligence, or failure to observe reasonable care, having regard to all the circumstances. I will draw your attention to the following regard to all the circumstances."

"It is often easy for us sitting here in a court room to say what should be done, but it is not so easy when having regard to all the circumstances what should the man on the scene have done. Place yourself in the shoes of the man on the scene, and then you will see the difficulty. The law can only set down general rules, it is for you to set the interpretation of the law in the circumstances," concluded his Lordship.

Mr. Justice Murphy dealt briefly with the other two bills, and then permitted the Grand Jury to retire. The court resumed at 2:30 p.m.

60,000 ACRES IS STEEP ORDER, PREMIER THINKS

London, Oct. 16 (Canadian Press cable).—The taking over by the British Government of some of the wealthy but undeveloped portions of the Dominions as a means of remedying unemployment in Great Britain is urged by A. Somervell, M.P., in a speech at Ascot last night.

Mr. Somervell said he had just returned from British Columbia, where Premier John Oliver was ready to place 60,000 acres of suitable land at the disposal of the British Government. If people from this country settled in British Columbia, Mr. Somervell said, not only would the unemployed find work here, but would also help the home industries.

"There is plenty of land in British Columbia for settlement, but I don't know anything about offering 60,000 acres," Premier Oliver said to-day when he heard of Mr. Somervell's speech at Ascot last night.

The Premier explained that Mr. Somervell had called on him. The visitor was told that there was a large area of land here but no mention was made about any specific amount, much less 60,000 acres.

"But it isn't 60,000 acres, we have no shortage of land for British settlers," the Premier added.

PROTEST AGAINST BUFFALO ROUND-UP

Toronto Christian Scientists Declare Movie Plan in Alberta Cruel

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Protest against the proposal, reported in news dispatches, to round-up and slaughter a herd of buffalo in Alberta while camera men representing movie picture interests, "shoot the picture" is voiced in a telegram sent to the Premier of Alberta by the Third Church of Christ, Scientists.

The text of the message follows: "According to press reports a terribly cruel spectacle is about to be enacted for the commercial benefit of a movie picture concern. It is reported that the Province of Alberta is allowing a large herd of buffalo to be rounded up and slaughtered by Indians, and the resulting pictures to be filmed for the edification of the public. It is possible that this bloody scene will be a good advertisement for the province, but it is a terrible amusement for children in the theatres. Before it is too late, may we register an emphatic protest against the proposed slaughter of the buffalo, and urge the government to take immediate action to have the affair stopped?"

SCHOOL TRUSTEES CONVENTION IN DUNCAN OPENS

Trustee Harwood, in his presidential address recommended the advisability of putting a charge in the field to bring the trustees together throughout the Province. The difficulty of the educational system, which he said, was a serious one, and that other schools were facing the same educational problems.

He stressed the necessity for technical education and made a plea for cheaper-text books in the schools. He made some comment of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, which he said, was a well organized and exercising quite an influence on the Department of Education.

Twentieth Meeting

The School Trustees' Association will with this meeting hold its twentieth gathering in the Province. The meeting was held in the city of Vancouver, and the appearance of the district from which resolutions have come and the varied subjects of the meeting, indicated a considerable amount of interest. They touch the fundamentals of educational policy.

Technical Education

On Wednesday morning an address on "Technical Education and What it Leads To" will be given by J. G. Lister, principal of the Technical School, Vancouver.

The Local Parent-Teacher Association is making the arrangements for a banquet to-morrow at the Women's Institute rooms, which will follow a drive to the district. The banquet will be a concert by the Cowichan Amateur Orchestral Society at the Opera House.

Reception Committee

A committee to make the arrangements has been working for some time, composed of W. M. Dwyer, chairman of the school board, Alderman Thomas Pitt, representing the Duncan Council, Councillor Green, representing the North Cowichan Council, and Mrs. E. Steok, for the Parent-Teacher Association.

Among the leading guests are Dean Coleman, representing the University of British Columbia; Harry Charlesworth, secretary of the B.C. Teachers' Federation; Mr. McArthur, the Parent-Teacher Federation of British Columbia, and President King, of the Alberta Teachers' Association.

Officers of Association

The present officers of the association are: Hon. J. D. MacLean, honorary president; J. Harwood, Vernon, president; J. D. MacLean, vice-president; O. T. Smythe, Duncan, second vice-president; J. E. Wilton, Point Grey, secretary.

The Concert

At the concert to-morrow the Cowichan Amateur Orchestral Society will present W. H. Snow, baritone, and a number of orchestral items. Wilfred A. Willett will conduct.

Consolidated Plan

It is the intention to place before the trustees a plan which will be in the nature of a consolidated school plan in Duncan and North Cowichan.

Pressure on Space

The hotel space was reserved some time ago and the local committee was struck with Clerk James Greig, secretary of the school board, and Manager Tom Berry, of the Poughkeepsie Hotel as members. To make the necessary plans. Arrangements were made to take care of the other delegates in private houses for the three days of the meeting.

An Unusual Incident

The Card of Honor resolution from the Nanaimo Board, has led a minister in Prince Rupert to preach a sermon against it—probably the most unusual incident in the history of such conventions. Rev. G. G. Hacker described it, according to The Daily News, as "a religious moral."

"It is the character building in our school boys and girls of as much importance as domestic science, manual training, or physical education," he said. "These are the hands of experts. Why make the teaching of morals a side line. Many teachers are already doing as much moral teaching as a side line admits time for. Why not follow the rapidly growing movement of having an exceptional teacher in each school, to give religious education. Kentucky has a splendid course of study. Thousands of children have taken the course voluntarily. The teachers are approved by the education department. The examinations count on the departmental examinations. This course of study has the approval of the B.C. Minister of Education if the people will really show a lively interest in it."

"The Sunday school does not reach all the youth, and the compulsory education. Where the Sunday school fails to get the boy or girl there is not generally a very lively interest in character building."

In the home. The school, then, is the only hope for such boys and girls. Let us give them the best possible training."

AMERICAN LEGION HOLDS CONVENTION

Delegates From Every State Now in San Francisco

Many Questions to be Decided During Sessions

San Francisco, Oct. 15.—Legionnaires from every state in the union are here attending the fifth annual convention of the American Legion. A sea of flags, a riot of color and bands—Indian bands, navy bands, army bands, cowboy bands, fraternal bands—greeted the delegates and visitors.

The American Legion Auxiliary began its annual convention late yesterday. Committees on resolutions, rehabilitation, legislation, constitutional amendments, internal organization, Americanism, finance, military affairs, naval affairs, aeronautics and time and place for the 1924 convention are struggling through the latter part of yesterday preparing data for the consideration of the open convention during the next few days.

Many Questions

Many questions vital to the welfare of the American Legion were considered in those committee rooms, members stated.

A strong hand on the helm is necessary to steer a straight course during the next four days, Legion officials admitted. A demand that the words "foster and promote a 100 per cent Americanism" be dropped from the American Legion preamble was made late yesterday.

Legion committee men stated that this would be kept off the floor of the convention if it were possible. The expression "100 per cent Americanism," it was stated, conflicts with a slogan of a national hooded organization. However, the Legion's slogan is not a demand for the use of the secret order.

The demand of Charles Kendrick, a local business man, and Michigan delegates, that the Legion come out in the open and unequivocally denounce the Ku Klux Klan, being fought out in the Legion, and efforts will be made, it is stated, to keep this question from the floor of the open convention.

$1,500,000 PUT IN DOMINION BANK

Toronto, Oct. 15.—"Thousands of bank depositors in Toronto yesterday gave an illustration of how bank panics begin and spread. The Globe says in an editorial to-day. "There was a run on the Dominion Bank on Friday as to the condition of the Dominion Bank, one of the strongest institutions in the country, presided over by Sir Edward B. Hale, a conservative is proverbial. C. A. Bogert, the general manager, believed, the malevolent gossip, had been brought to his notice would cease if no publicity was given to it, and that there was no need to assure the public of the solvency and strength of the bank."

Mr. Bogert thought he was confronted by the same form of unorganized panic that had caused runs from time to time on branches of other banks in smaller centres and that the best way to deal with the matter was to ignore the stories in circulation and pay out the money called for by nervous depositors.

"This method of coping with the situation would have been all right had the run been unorganized. It became a run on Saturday, however, and in a still greater degree on Monday morning, that there were people in Toronto making it their business to spread broadcast the state of affairs calculated to injure the bank and bring about withdrawal of deposits."

OPEN AFTER HOURS

"The run was met ultimately and overtaken by keeping the head office and branches of the bank open after hours to pay all the depositors who had assembled before the closing statement signed by Sir Edmund Gossett, Mr. Bogert and G. T. Clarkson, the bank's auditor, that the Dominion Bank at the present time is in a position to meet all its obligations at any time in its history. It has no loans or transactions on its books that are causing the directors or officers to be concerned, and the bank is in a position to meet all demands that may be made upon it."

"The Globe hopes and believes that yesterday's experiences will bring the officials of the banks generally to a realization of the value of publicity and the means of preventing such follies as yesterday's run on the Dominion Bank."

METHODIST COURT OF DISCIPLINE HOLDS WINNIPEG HEARING

Winnipeg, Oct. 15.—Charges of misrepresentation and offences against the law of God and the discipline of the Methodist Church, laid against Principal J. H. Richardson, Wesley College, Winnipeg, by Rev. W. G. Smith, former vice-principal of the institution, are being heard to-day by a court of discipline of the Methodist Church. Rev. Samuel Wilkinson, president of the Manitoba Conference, presiding, and it is thought the proceedings will last several days. The hearings are being conducted in a room at Wesley College for the public will be given out. The investigation is an aftermath of the trial of Richardson for alleged misrepresentation and his subsequent action (which failed in the Court of King's Bench) against Wesley College to recover damages for breach of contract.

COVELL HOROSCOPES ARE DEIPHERED

Oregon Murder Investigated; Seattle Detective Assists

No Reference to Late William Desmond Taylor

Seattle, Oct. 15.—Deciphering made to-day of horoscopes declared to have been sent to film stars by Arthur Covell, astrologist, of Marshallfield, Ore., who has been charged with murder in an indictment, disclosed none relating directly to William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, who was slain in Hollywood, said Luke S. May, detective.

"I have deciphered a horoscope sent by Covell to an actress mentioned very prominently in connection with the death of Taylor," said Mr. May, who announced last night that his studies of the death of Mrs. Ethel Covell, of Bandon, Ore., for which Covell was indicted, might give a "strong clue" to the Taylor mystery, "and I have found that it makes no reference to Taylor."

Warned to Leave

Mr. May said that continued perusal of Covell horoscopes indicated that a great many people were warned to leave Oregon, the alternative being the payment of sums of money, and the warning sign "K.K.K." were to be sent these people.

Mr. May declared that one set of horoscopes showed that Alton Covell, who may claim Covell played a part in the murder of Taylor, was to be sent to death had he escaped detection up to twenty-four.

May also made public for the first time the written confession of a man to have obtained from Alton Covell, young nephew of the star gazer, in which the youth told how he killed his stepmother, Mrs. Ethel Wren Covell, at Bandon, Ore., last Labor Day.

Another Arrest

The criminologist said one more arrest may yet be made in connection with Mrs. Covell's murder, and added that he had wired Oregon authorities for a list of murders and arson crimes committed in that state during the last several years and still unsolved.

He has reason to believe, he said, that the Covells may have been implicated in some of these unsolved mysteries, and that he may be able to prove such connection from the astrologer's weird writings, which he is now at work deciphering.

Marked for Murder

In addition to the first twelve alleged intended victims of Covell, whose names May had already given, a further list of names, which he had found among the astrologer's crime plans the following "marked for murder":

Ernest Dyer, a rancher; C. B. Zeek, a notary; Walter Smith and J. M. Long, ranchers; Chris Rasmussen, Mr. Belting, a lawyer; Mr. Johnson, a farmer; and a list of names, which he said to appear in Covell's writings as "Chet, Houston, Bruen and Flair."

RACE TO FOLLOW PAPHYRUS RACE IS PROPOSED

Laurel, Md., Oct. 15.—Spalding Lowe Jenkins, president of the Maryland State Fair Association, while conducting the meeting here, wired Trainers Sam Hildreth, who looks after Zev, and Basil Jarvis, who is preparing Papyrus for Saturday's match race at Belmont Park, an offer of $50,000 to have Saturday's winner meet Admiral Cary T. Grayson's My Obedience in a special race on Thursday of next week.

WOMEN ON JURY AT VANCOUVER

Vancouver, Oct. 15.—"I shall not pretend that I favor having women on juries, but I believe that women as being on a pinnacle. But it seems they want to pull themselves down to mere level of any rate, the Legislature has seen fit to put you there."

Mr. Justice Gregory so told the jury at the Assizes which opened here to-day. Mr. Justice Gregory made a careful and unusually detailed explanation of the duties of the grand jury.

Rev. R. B. Cochrane to-day notified the Toronto Presbytery that he would decline the call to Knox Church, Calgary.

Listen!

Have you heard about Peps? Peps is a scientific preparation put up in a pastille form, which provides an entirely new and effective treatment for coughs, colds, chest and throat troubles.

Peps contains certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the passages to the lungs. On the journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the sin passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages these Peps fumes get there direct and at once commence healing.

Cut out this article, write across the name and state of this paper, and mail it (with 1c stamp to pay return postage) to Peps Co., Toronto. A free trial packet will then be sent you. All druggists and stores sell Peps, 50c. box.

REMARKABLE EXAMPLES of how Constipation—Skin troubles—Digestive disorders—can be overcome naturally and permanently

"A sedentary life," writes the Rev. James E. W. Cook, of Wilmington, N. C., "leads to torpidity of the liver and kidneys, to constipation, and to the misery of acute jaundice. No man in such a condition can feel bright and competent to face the duties of the day. He wakes in the morning with a bad taste in his mouth and a dull feeling in his head. Not only Monday but every day is painted a depressing blue. His life is threatened with failure."

Innumerable boils on each of the three children was the experience of Mrs. Mary H. Lloyd of New Albany, Ind. All treatment seemed in vain. "Three medicine spoons went down three tiny throats twenty times daily. Boils still came. The little sisters still cried."

"When at last the doctor suggested Fleischmann's Yeast, the household laughed. But soon the boils came less frequently. And when three little girls began to spread Fleischmann's Yeast instead of butter on their bread, the boils disappeared entirely."

"It was while feeling thus that I determined to investigate Fleischmann's Yeast. To-day constipation, indigestion, and all their attendant ills have gone like evil genii before a magic wand. The Arabian Nights contain nothing more wonderful."

"Acne blotches had covered my face," writes Caroline Curtis, a New York concert singer. "As my engagements to sing became frequent I felt more and more sensitive over my disfigured complexion. In desperation I used soaps, ointments, tried dieting, and even a series of 20 X-ray treatments."

"After every other measure had failed, I began eating 2 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily. Scarcely two weeks had passed before my complexion began to clear, the blotches fading and no new ones had appeared. At the end of a month my face had regained its youthful texture, and was free from blemishes."

"Try two cakes of fresh yeast every day," said the specialist (runs a letter from Frank E. Rice, of Ithaca, N. Y.). "I had eaten bran by the quart, tried special and vegetable diets, consumed quantities of sour milk bacteria. But nothing mild ever had any effect. My constipation was of 20 years' standing, and I had begun to feel it would always be thus."

"That yeast treatment was started 15 months ago. Since the end of the first four or five weeks, I have not had the slightest need for purgatives of any kind. The benefits cannot be measured in money. Now I find I can eat any food or combination of foods without fear of a constipating effect; my appetite and digestion are perfect."

"In March, 1920," says a letter from an Oklahoman, M. M. Glauber, "I read your 'Yeast for Health' advertisement. Frankly, I did not believe it. For years I had been troubled with an acid condition of the stomach; 'heartburn,' constipation, no pep. Merely out of curiosity I tried yeast—and was agreeably astonished. My digestion improved rapidly. That stuffy feeling caused by a heavy meal disappeared. My bowels functioned without artificial assistance. The acidity has not returned and my daily dose of soda is a thing of the past. In brief, I was not merely relieved—I was cured."

THE burning misery of an "acid stomach"—the clogging poisons of constipation—the pain and disfigurement of an unsightly skin—they are all needless.

Gradually we are realizing the truth about such disorders: realizing that in the vast majority of cases they are due simply to wrong habits of living and eating, and that the body—given a real chance—can conquer these ills itself.

It is foolish to expect the impossible. Of course, cases that demand medical or surgical aid are not generally curable through the yeast treatment. But in 99 out of every 100 ordinary cases of constipation, skin eruptions, or digestive trouble, Fleischmann's Yeast can accomplish literally amazing results.

Its millions of tiny living plants make digestion easy and give the intestinal muscles regular, healthy exercise. Rich in Vitamin-B and proteins, it increases the white corpuscles in the blood. A fresh, clear skin—new life—new vigor—it is no wonder that many assert "I feel actually better and younger today than I did 20 years ago."

Remember that Fleischmann's Yeast for Health comes only in the tin foil wrapper and cannot be purchased in tablet form. All grocers have it.

Send for free booklet, "The New Found Value of Fleischmann's Yeast in Building Health." The Fleischmann Company, Dept. 215-A, 1166 Burrard Street, Vancouver, B. C.

DESIGNED TO AID EMPIRE LEADERS

British Institute of International Affairs Has Prince as Visitor

London, Oct. 15 (Canadian Press Cable).—It is understood that the Prince of Wales has accepted the office of visitor of the British Institute of International Affairs. Shortly after his return to England from Canada, the Prince will accept an historic mansion in Westminster presented to the British Empire by two Canadians whose identity is not yet disclosed, as a home for the institute.

Founded in 1919, the institute was founded in 1919 by members of the peace delegation at the Paris conference. The membership includes some 800 persons representing all parties and including officials, and it is open to British subjects who are serious students of foreign affairs. Its objects are research and the issuance of publication which will enable public men throughout the Empire to follow the course of foreign affairs and by study and mutual instruction to equip themselves as guides of public opinion.

The institute is debarred by its constitution from propaganda. It can neither formulate nor advocate policies. Lord Curzon, Earl Balfour, Viscount Grey of Falouden, Lord Robert Cecil, Lloyd George and J. R. Clynes, M.P., Labor leader, are at the head of the institute. In addition to the building, the donors have given £3,500 as the nucleus of an endowment.

Baby's Grandmother in Germany is Also Her Sister-in-Law

Cologne, Oct. 15.—The little village of Hohenberg, near here, is absorbed in working out the complexities of two matrimonial adventures, though the table of affinity appears ridiculously simple.

The puzzle started two years ago when a sixty-eight-year-old widower married the village belle, a maid of twenty-two, who thus became the stepmother of her husband's forty-year-old son. Soon afterwards the son married the mother of his stepmother, by which his own father became his son-in-law.

Then the twenty-two-year-old wife presented her husband with a daughter and the elder bride did the same thing, so the first baby's grandmother is also her sister-in-law.

BUREAU NOW ON WAY TO COAST

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—The date for the conference between Canadian and United States officials in regard to rum-running across the border has not yet been decided on.

The conference will not take place for some weeks, however, as Hon. Jacques Bureau, Minister of Customs, has gone west on a business trip and will not return until some time next month. Mr. Bureau probably will gather information in regard to rum-running on the Pacific Coast while in British Columbia.

ASKS U.S. TO AID IN KEEPING PEACE

Lloyd George Makes Appeal in Speech in Minneapolis

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 15.—His first public address in the United States after the conclusion of his tour in Canada was made by Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George at a luncheon given by the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce Association yesterday.

"I am not here on any mission," the former British Premier said, "but let me say to you one thing, that until the United States of America, with its mighty influence, with its great power, with the moral command which it has in the world, because of its past, with the great claim that you won by coming into the war without any self purpose but for a holy idea, sent millions of your best young men across to fight for liberty and for nothing else—until this great land casts its influence into the scale of peace, I despair for the future."

Referring to a statement that Americans were doing their best to forget the war, he urged that they do not forget.

"There is nothing," he said, "for you to forget—nothing. There is something for you to be proud of. You came for nothing at the call of a great purpose and a great ideal. It ought to be your pride. The part you took in it is one which is worthy of your greatest traditions. And my last word is that so far from forgetting that part, I trust that the United States of America will one more, in due time, in its own way, cast its great might into the scales of peace."

Canada's Future

Referring to his tour in Canada, Mr. Lloyd George declared that the Dominion was a vast country with immense possibilities, but "is naturally in the stage of development in which you were perhaps 100 years ago, with reference to your country," adding that he "was anxious to see this amazing new civilization untrammelled, free from the difficulties, the embarrassments, the traditions, the hatreds and the terrible problems which are affecting Europe and making it difficult at every turn for progress to have a clear path."

"I am from a troubled continent," he continued; "this continent is at peace. I crossed the frontier last night—the most remarkable frontier the world—without forts and guns or soldiers or barbed wire to protect it. The frontiers of poor Europe bristles with the mechanism for slaughter. Yours is the continent of peace, and, in God's name, keep it the continent of peace."

Honored by Indians

A colorful ceremony was held during the luncheon when Mr. Lloyd George was formally made an honorary member of the Sioux tribe of Indians by chiefs in full tribal costume and paint from the Cheyenne Indian reservation of South Dakota, who conferred upon him their degree of the eagle feather.

Chief Brave Eagle, heading the delegation with an historic quiver in his hands and an historic quiver filled with arrows, used in ancient battles of the tribe, was placed in his arms. At the same time the Indians gave him a belt of wampum and articles of Indian manufacture for Dame Margaret and Miss Megan Lloyd George, who were among the most interested spectators of the ceremony.

BY-ELECTION IN NEWFOUNDLAND

Minister of Telegraphs Seeks Endorsement; Two Elected by Acclamation

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 15.—Nominations for three by-elections arising out of departmental changes due to the resignation of Sir Richard Squires from the premiership recently were held yesterday.

Hon. G. F. Grimes, Minister of Fisheries, and Hon. Joseph Dwyer, Minister of Agriculture, were returned unopposed in the districts of Fogo and St. George, respectively.

In the Harbour Main district, Hon. M. E. Hawco, Minister of Telegraphs, is being opposed by J. J. St. John, Independent. October 25 will be polling day.

NO VOTERS' LIST CHANGE IN WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Oct. 15.—Holding that the applicant had not proved sufficient "interest" in the case, that he had not shown where any great wrong was being done, and that if the list being used is an improper one, the applicant has a remedy through Parliament. Mr. Justice Dwyer, in the Court of King's Bench yesterday afternoon, dismissed the application for a writ of mandamus on behalf of Alderman A. A. Heaps, Laborite, to prevent use of the 1921 voters' list in the forthcoming by-election in North Winnipeg. The applicant wanted the 1923 liquor referendum list used, rather than the last Dominion election list.

MEDICAL COUNCIL OF CANADA GIVES EXAMINATION REPORT

Montreal, Oct. 15.—The Medical Council of Canada announces the names of candidates who passed the examination held during the past week and are now entered upon the Canadian Medical Register with the qualification of Licentiate of the Medical Council of Canada. The list includes the following: J. H. Brodie, Lethbridge; E. J. Curtis, Vancouver; E. Dickie, Perth; Sask.; J. W. McLellan, Winnipeg; P. W. Wallace, Nelson, B. C.; and P. M. Wilson, Vancouver.

L. R. STEEL STORES CONTINUE TO SELL

Business Carried on in Canada While Buffalo Men Prepare to Make Offer

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Creditors of the L. R. Steel Company at a meeting here yesterday approved the continuance of the stores for another two months at the request of the United States receivers, who state that there are people in Buffalo investigating the business in a bona fide way.

These parties hope to make a proposal to take over the Steel interests, it was said, which would pay the creditors in full. Some arrangement would be made for a reorganization and protection or some privileges given to shareholders.

The meeting adjourned until December 17.

GREAT CUSTOMS CONFERENCE HELD

Thirty-Four Nations Represented at Meeting in Geneva

Simplification of Customs Formalities Discussed

Geneva, Oct. 15.—Customs formalities—how to simplify them and make them a help rather than a hindrance to international trade—formed the question of supreme interest discussed yesterday at the opening session of the International Customs Conference.

In a consultative capacity an important group is here for the International Chamber of Commerce, which really framed the basis of the present meeting at its conference at Rome. These delegates will be freely consulted as important problems on the programme are discussed. Questions like national tariff policies have been officially struck out of the programme on the ground that they are not ready for international treatment, but the delegates have admitted privately that the present conference is probably only the forerunner of an attempt to take up the huge questions of tariff and commercial policy and endeavor to secure some universal agreement.

Germany, Luxembourg, Ireland, Japan, Siam and even Morocco and Tunis are among the thirty-four states represented.

The whole burden of yesterday's addresses was the fervent hope that the conference would achieve practical results calculated to further freedom of trade and thereby help world economic reconstruction.

CHINA REPLIES TO NOTE OF POWERS

Peking, Oct. 15.—China's reply to the second note of the diplomatic corps regarding the Lincheng bandit-outrage, delivered to the Legations yesterday, reverses the former uncompromising attitude of the Peking Government toward some of the demands.

The latest note meets in large measure the stipulations designed by the powers to provide greater security for foreigners.

The Chinese Government has issued a mandate dismissing from office Tuchen (Military Governor) Tien Chung Yu, under whose jurisdiction the Lincheng bandits operated last May when they held up an express train and kidnapped numerous foreigners. This disposes of one most point in the negotiations. China previously had declined to admit the right of the foreign nations to demand the punishment of officials deemed culpable.

The new Chinese communication agrees in principle to the supplementary indemnities asked by the foreign powers, but does not commit the Government to the railway guard scheme, including reorganization under foreign supervision, proposed by the diplomatic corps.

Peking expresses appreciation of the readiness of the diplomats to collaborate in the suppression of banditry.

QUEBEC BY-ELECTIONS

Montreal, Oct. 15.—Hector Authier yesterday was nominated official Liberal candidate in the Abitibi provincial by-election to be held next Monday. Other nominations for contests Monday are: Yamaska, David Laperriere, Liberal; Henry Niquette, Conservative; Richmond, S. R. Desmarais, Liberal; J. H. Côté, Conservative; Brome, C. J. Oliver, Liberal; J. N. Davignon, Conservative.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wavy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. MR. LLOYD GEORGE IN THE STATES

There is firmly implanted in the great majority of the adult minds over the border a respectful appreciation of a political tradition that has been responsible for obtaining a greater measure of peaceful development than has been the case with many countries on the other side of the Atlantic. This element of the population is not yet convinced that the recent conflict furnishes any proof that the United States would have to send her soldiers to take part in such future wars as may break out in Europe. Rather does it take the view that a still more rigid adherence to the policy of isolation is essential to the country's best interests and the only guarantee of immunity from further waste in lives and treasure.

On the other hand there is a growing belief among what may yet prove to be an eventual majority that the progress of science and the revelations of the last struggle have opened up possibilities for destruction that may take no account of the three thousand miles of blue sea or conform to even the most recent conception of war's processes. These people are asking themselves how their country can escape another world upheaval if the aggressor should determine that she should be enjoined. Germany did not make war on the United States as she made it on Belgium or France; but she struck at the fundamental principles of the nation and action followed. What is to prevent a repetition of such measures by the nation or group of nations which will make war in the future only if there are sufficient surprises available to promise success? For the next war—if there should be another one of large proportions—will start with a sudden blow the nature of which may be impossible to visualize before the shock.

Mr. Lloyd George informed the people of Minneapolis yesterday that until "this great land casts its influence into the scale for peace" he deplores the future. The former Premier may be rather too doleful about the things that he seems to consider are in store for the Old World. He may not be altogether fair to the League of Nations when he does not openly support it in the republic. At the same time he is quite right when he declares that if the people of the United States would join with the British Empire in saying emphatically to those states that are making fighting their principal pastime, that any further attempts to disturb the peace will be regarded as a direct affront to 110,000,000 Americans—as well as a challenge to the peoples of the British Empire—Europe could breathe a good deal more freely.

The fact that Mr. Lloyd George is not saying much about the League of Nations does not indicate his lack of faith in its possibilities. Rather does it mean that he prefers to interest our neighbor in Europe's troubles by dropping for the time being his own particular advertisement of the League. The main thing is to stir the people up to the point that will convince them that they are not immune from the overflow of the Old World's troubles; but that they can materially assist in permanently curing them—and help themselves in the doing of it.

FORESHORE RIGHTS

One of the most important questions settled between the Dominion Government and the Province of British Columbia during the recent visit of the Federal Minister of Marine and Fisheries was undoubtedly that which cleared up a controversy that has been outstanding ever since this Province entered Confederation, and definitely established the ownership of the foreshores of this part of the country.

Under the terms of union that governed British Columbia's entrance into the family of Canadian provinces the ownership of public harbors was vested in the Dominion Government. As this part of the country grew, however, it was only natural that the definition of what constituted a public harbor would present difficulties from time to time. And it will be remembered that the Privy Council decided in the Spanish Banks case that only such public harbors as were designated by the terms of union could be considered the property of the Dominion Government. Consequently the negotiations which have been carried on between Mr. Pattullo and the authorities at Ottawa, and more recently with Mr. Lapointe, centred upon the suggestion that if the Dominion Government would lay claim to the ownership of six harbors under the terms of union and turn over the rest to the Province the authorities here would very generously define the limits of the six in question. This then is the point at which Mr. Pattullo and Mr. Lapointe reached agreement, and the people of British Columbia will now enter into possession of all the foreshores of the Province save those that constitute the undisputed property of the Dominion—now clearly defined.

The disposition of this highly important question, through the conclusion of the agreement which Mr. Pattullo has so successfully negotiated by short range discussion, will leave it clearly defined to such industry as may require to establish itself in any harbor whether it should make application for foreshore rights to the Province or to the Dominion. Hitherto the doubt surrounding possession and authority has been a source of annoyance and in some instances industry has been slow to become involved. All this is now at an end and the Province should profit thereby.

TO-NIGHT'S MEETING

All members of the Victoria Liberal Association are reminded that the annual meeting of the organization and the election of officers will take place to-night in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce premises.

It should not be necessary to dilate upon the desirability of a large attendance upon an occasion of this kind. Matters which will come before the gathering are of considerable importance to the Liberal forces in this neighborhood and it should not be difficult to obtain the fullest measure of co-operation and practical assistance from every member of the Association. Nor should it be forgotten that the business of the evening will be interspersed by addresses from the Premier, the Minister of Finance, and the President of the Provincial Association.

The officers of the organization particularly request that all who intend to be present make an effort to be in their places by 7.45 at the latest.

Note and Comment

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis is flying from San Francisco to Chicago to meet Mr. Lloyd George. Another proof that a Welshman never stays down for long.

As long as Chancellor Stresemann can depend upon his officers of law and order the spasmodic rioting in Berlin and Duesseldorf and other parts of the republic will not become a very serious menace to the government.

Now that Mr. Lloyd George has seen the Canadian-American border he can use that as a text on more than one occasion when he is pleading the cause of peace in Europe.

Victorians got their first reminder yesterday that they cannot expect Summer to spread itself all over the lap of Fall and throw its arms round the neck of Winter. After all we have already passed the middle of October and the season of the year naturally resents any suggestion that it does not know its job.

Comparing the people of British Columbia with those of Quebec in the matter of their preferences for alcoholic stimulants is an old dodge of the proponents of the open sale of beer and light wines. The Briton takes his bacon and eggs for breakfast because he is just as used to it as the boulevard habitue in Paris is used to his coffee and rolls for the first meal of the day. Old and New World tastes exist in the two extremes of Canada and nothing will alter them.

Our Contemporaries

GOOD-WILL AND TARIFFS

Ottawa Citizen:—Imperial tariff advocates are mistaken in assuming that this good-will can be capitalized behind tariff walls, after the manner of the German dream of an imperial Zollverein. While the tariff gives protection to the manufacturers, it reduces the purchasing power to consumers. Premier Mackenzie King will doubtless be very cautious about being led into any scheme of tariff politics for increasing trade within the Empire. At the same time, there are great possibilities of bringing increased prosperity to the whole British Commonwealth through some practical plan to draw more effectively on that good-will and confidence which is the basis of real credit between the nations under the British flag.

LAW STILL OPERATIVE

Christian Science Monitor:—That stable prices are highly desirable is apparent. That changing the amount of gold in the standard dollar from time to time will stabilize prices is not so evident. The price of wheat is fifteen or more cents per bushel lower than it was a year ago. The price of corn is twenty cents per bushel higher. It cannot be the gold standard that is responsible for this wide price fluctuation of the two principal cereals. Sugar prices have advanced 25 per cent. and declined 30 per cent. within a year, under the same monetary system. It looks as though old Supply and Demand are still the chief factors in fixing prices, irrespective of the number of grains of gold that are called a dollar.

GUESSING COMPETITIONS

To the Editor:—I have noted the recent decisions in court concerning the baseball and football guessing competitions, and the result is that all such competitions must cease, according to such decisions. Now, no question of unfairness or crooked dealing enters into these competitions, so far as is known, and it is not because of those reasons that these cases have been brought to court. Why is it? If they are illegal now, they were illegal at their inception, and it makes no difference if one hundred persons or ten thousand persons are participating. The ordinary person likes to take a chance on most things, and I think that you would find if you questioned the average man or woman that the majority would be in favor of these taking the view that they saw no reason why they should interfere with their neighbors' methods of spending their spare cash.

Betting on horse racing under certain conditions is legal. Betting on baseball or football under any conditions is illegal. Personally I have no inclination for either, but I'm not interfering with the other fellow. But in common with thousands of my fellow-citizens, I like to have a dollar or so in a sweepstake or some similar sporting proposition now and again.

Let us be consistent and stop the wheel and five hundred drives and the ladies' aid tombolas and pink tea raffles, but don't let us miss the chance of having a five spot on Dempsey at the published odds or winning a little bit legally at the Willows.

Finally, let us drop a little of our hypocrisy and give the Rev. Mr. Chagband a letter of introduction to Zion City, where he will no doubt be more appreciated.

VINCENT J. DUNN.

"NARCOTICS"

To the Editor:—Quite often of late we see the terms "drug addict," "drug traffic" and "drug evil" in our daily reading. The above terms are not quite clear and the reason is this:

It is very common for a person to take drugs and sometimes for an extended period and with beneficial results. A person suffering from a kind of a tropical malady, for instance, may take cinchona and take it over a long period. That person is really a "drug addict" not a "narcotic addict."

The physician and pharmacist carry on a traffic in drugs. The uses and the administration of drugs, their daily routine. But they do not fit in under the heading of "narcotic traffic."

I do believe that we should not refer to one who uses a narcotic as a "drug addict." They are really a "narcotic addict" and the term is self-explanatory. Recently in The Times a case was cited where a girl of fifteen years had been taking "drugs" for two years. The use of drugs over the period of two years is not uncommon. The use of narcotics would give a altogether different meaning.

I am sincerely against the narcotic evil in all of its many forms and I believe that the use of the lash more often would do more to checking this evil than any fine will ever do.

But when we speak of this evil, let us say "narcotic evil," "narcotics," "narcotic traffic" and "narcotic addicts" and the terms are not so likely to be misinterpreted.

This new lotion is instantly absorbed by the skin

Frequent washing chaps your hands

Housework makes frequent washing necessary—keep your hands smooth and white with this healing preparation

YOU can have smooth, white hands—lovely to touch and look at—no matter how much you use them at household tasks.

Every time you wash your hands, apply Jergens Lotion, a clouded, silvery liquid, deliciously fragrant, which soothes and softens your skin the moment you apply it. Why? Because it contains two of the most healing skin restoratives known—benzoin and almond.

Benzoin has been used in medicine from time immemorial for its wonderful effect in healing the skin. Almond softens and whitens. Use Jergens Lotion whenever you wash your hands or face. It is instantly absorbed—leaves not a trace of stickiness. 50 cents at any drug store or toilet goods counter. Or send for large illustrated bottle free. "Our Own Brand" BUTTER

IS FIRST WOMAN CALLED TO SERVE ON PETIT JURY

Mrs. Helen M. Richdale is Well-Known Member of Eastern Star

To Mrs. Helen M. Richdale, of 734 Queen's Avenue, belongs the distinction of being the first woman called for jury duty in Victoria, and one of the first in the Province of British Columbia. She has been called for the petit jury but at the time of going to press the jury had not been empanelled, although Mrs. Richdale to a Times reporter expressed her readiness to serve should she be called upon to do so.

Mrs. Richdale is well-known in several women's organizations of the city. She has been a resident here for the past thirty years, and during that time has become prominently associated with the work of the order of the Eastern Star. During the year she was active in the women's auxiliary to the Great War Veterans' Association, and has been indefatigable in helping the cause of the returned man and his dependents. If the experience acquired during long association with societies engaged in benevolent work means the acquisition of an understanding knowledge of human nature and a wider outlook on the problems of life, then Mrs. Richdale should be eminently fitted to undertake the responsibilities of full citizenship, as expressed in terms of jury service.

The present Assizes mark the first occasion on which women have been called for jury duty, although the amendment to the Jurors' Act permitting the admission of women to jury duty was made by the Provincial Government at the session of 1922.

But because a woman is called for jury service, it does not follow that she is obliged to serve. They may claim exemption under similar classes as the men, including women over sixty years of age, Dominion or Provincial civil servants, barristers, solicitors, law students and attested clerks engaged in the legal profession, physicians, surgeons, dentists, teachers, journalists and telegraph operators.

For years a number of women's organizations, notably the Local Council of Women, have urged the inclusion of women on the jury lists on the ground that when women were raised to the status of full citizenship, they expected to share in the responsibilities as well as the privileges entailed.

Another factor which led to the demand for woman jurors was the increase in the number of cases concerning women, particularly in cases of criminal assault. Women engaged in social service work have long felt that such matters should be brought before a mixed jury in order that both sides of the case, that of the man and the woman, receive the fairest and fullest consideration.

MRS. AGNES CARTER CALLED BY DEATH

Was an Expert in Domestic Science and Popular Judge

Women of rural communities throughout the Province will share with Victoria in mourning the passing of Mrs. Agnes Margaret Carter, wife of William Robert Carter, of the staff of the Provincial Museum, who succumbed this morning after an operation performed at St. Joseph's Hospital a few days ago.

An expert in domestic science in all its many phases, Mrs. Carter was considered an authority on the subject and her services were frequently in demand in the capacity of judge at Fall fairs and as a lecturer demonstrating on the preparation of food. Throughout the summer she was busily engaged in this work, being appointed by the Provincial Department of Agriculture to judge the women's exhibits at the various fairs held under the auspices of Women's Institutes and other rural bodies. Only a few weeks ago she served in this capacity at Parkville and Duncan fairs. The soundness of her judgment and the extent of her knowledge may be adduced from the fact that her decision was never questioned.

Scottish by birth, Mrs. Carter shared the splendid qualities of the women of her race. By sheer hard work and adaptability she made for herself a niche in the rural life of the Province and a place in her profession, which will be hard to fill for many a woman housekeeper in town and country owes much to the kindly expert guidance of Mrs. Carter.

Mrs. Carter came to British Columbia as Miss Agnes Steele Rose, nine years ago. To a thorough training in domestic science and kindred subjects she added that of child welfare, having trained in the care of children at the Manchester School of Nursing. For some time she taught domestic science in Burnaby and other schools in the vicinity of Vancouver until her marriage, when she relinquished her duties of teaching. But by this time she had become such a recognized authority on domestic science that her services were constantly in demand, and she was one of the most popular women judges in Canada.

The late Mrs. Carter was thirty-nine years of age and had lived in Victoria for four and a half years. She is survived by her husband, residing at 712 Lamson Street, and her mother, Mrs. Annie Rose, who resided here until her death some months ago, and has since returned to Scotland. The remains are reposing at the City Funeral Chapel from where the funeral will take place on Thursday at 2 p.m. proceeding to St. John's Church for the service at 2:15.

YOUR HOME AND YOU

By HELEN KENDALL
Curtaining Transoms

There are some few rooms—spacious, lofty rooms, with breadth as well as length and height—in which the very high window is beautiful and impressive. Such a window is often attractive, too, in a hall or at the top of a noble flight of stairs. It must be confessed, however, that in the average long, narrow city dwelling, where this window floured some decades ago, it still lingers, it does little but tom-like effect but incurs the uninviting appearance, the reminders of such a window have given their first attention to the windows. In many cases the high windows are removed entirely and replaced by groups of low, small-paneled casements extending across the entire front of the room. This is expensive, however, and very often the owner of the building is unwilling to make the change, and the tenants must devise their own means of making the windows look lower and wider than they really are.

In a certain New York City living-room which I saw recently, the occupants of a high, narrow house had worked out an ingenious scheme for the high French windows, which reached from floor to ceiling with a beautiful arch at the top. They might have lowered the windows in effect by placing a deep valance at the top, but for two reasons they did not do this—they wanted every ray of light they could get and they loved the graceful lines of the arch.

What they did instead was to shorten the window by putting in a temporary paneled wainscoting across the lower panes, the panels being horizontally placed, to increase the apparent width. Richly translucent draperies in color were caught back very high, to give a valanced effect and still retain the arch. When this change was completed, the window seemed at first glance to be no higher than the average sized window of a modern home. A chair rail with a deeper shade of color below that on the upper rail, with a deeper shade of color below that on the upper wall, cut down the room still further, and low wall-panels made one forget the distant ceiling and the one-time feeling of being down in a well.

Half Million Dollars, Jewelry and Motors to Princess Arthur

London, Oct. 14.—Many bequests to members of the royal family were made by the late Earl Farquhar, who died on August 20 and whose will has just been probated in England. He was a life-long friend of the late Duke of Fife and Princess Arthur of Connaught, Duchess of Fife, was one of his executors as well as the heaviest beneficiary under the will.

$500,000 for Princess

The estate is valued roughly at £400,000 (about $2,000,000) and the death duties will amount to £100,000. Princess Arthur of Connaught is left £100,000, and a similar amount is left upon trust for her for life, with remainder to her son, the Earl of Macduff, now aged nine.

There are numerous other bequests to the royal family, including £50,000 to Princess Maud, or to her fiancé, Lord Carnegie, should their contemplated marriage take place, and £20,000 to Prince George. Lord Farquhar also left £2,000 to his valet.

Gifts to King

The following bequests were left to the royal family in addition to the bequests of his residuary estate:

To King George V., two Louis Quatorze casters for sugar (formerly used for ladies' powder), and "I should be very pleased if His Majesty King George the Fifth would select anything he would care to have from the contents of my residence Castle Rising, Norfolk, and I will accordingly."

To Queen Mary, his Louis Seize commode purchased by him from Duveen, and everything belonging to him at White Lodge, Richmond, except items temporarily there but properly belonging to Grosvenor Square.

To Queen Alexandra, his Oriental Sang de Boeuf Vase, with mounts by Goutier.

To the Princess Royal, the silver basket for flowers given to him by her father the late King Edward as a centre-piece for life, with remainder to Princess Maud.

To Princess Victoria, two Dresden glass, with Louis Quinze mounts.

To the Princess Royal, his Louis Quinze Rhinoceros clock, and the silver Tiger centre-piece (so much liked by her late husband, the Duke of Fife) for life, with remainder to Princess Arthur of Connaught.

To Princess Arthur of Connaught, all his plate not otherwise bequeathed, the selection of one of his diamond necklaces, all his effects at Grosvenor Square not otherwise be-

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

As a health builder, Royal Yeast is gaining in popularity every day. It is a food—not a medicine. It supplies the vitamins which the diet may lack. Royal Yeast is highly beneficial in cases where the system seems "run down". Royal Yeast is the richest known source of vitamins, and when taken into the system acts as a corrective agent. Royal Yeast Cakes are recommended for their purity and wholesomeness. It is the purest, the most convenient and economical yeast on the market.

Two to four Royal Yeast Cakes a day will work wonders. A full day's supply can easily be prepared at one time by using one glass lukewarm water and teaspoon sugar to each yeast cake. Allow to stand over night in moderately warm room. In the morning stir well and pour off liquid. Place in refrigerator or other cool place and drink at intervals as desired throughout the day.

W. Norcross Speaks on Conditions of Grain Moving to Head of Lakes

In a recent interview on the grain carrying question, J. W. Norcross, vice-president and managing director of the Canada Steamship Lines, said he was surprised to learn from various sources that the Board of Grain Commissioners had been in consultation with representatives of the larger American lake shipping interests because as far as he was able to ascertain the board had not consulted any of the Canadian water transportation lines. This was a little surprising in view of the fact that the larger portion of the business of the Canadian fleet consists of the carriage of grain while the American fleets devote something in excess of ninety per cent. of their total carrying capacity to commodities other than grain.

THREE BLUE FUNNEL
BOATS ARE COMING

Philoctetes Will Dock From
Orient Noon To-morrow;
Tydeus Leaves U.K.

Henry Davidson, former Victoria agent for Dowell & Company, arrived in the city this morning in order to meet the Blue Funnel steamer Philoctetes, due from the Orient at noon to-morrow. The Philoctetes is expected to make quarantine at noon to-morrow and after securing pratique will dock here.

The vessel has 129 Chinese steerage passengers who will depart here. Tydeus Leaves Glasgow. Another Blue Funnel Line ship coming here is the Tydeus, which is reported having left Glasgow on October 10 for Victoria, Vancouver and Puget Sound ports. She is expected here on or about November 14, and will have 470 tons of cargo for discharge.

The Diomedea, another Blue Funnel boat, last heard of at Baltimore, will come to this coast soon to enter the trans-Pacific service. The Diomedea is a new vessel and has all the latest facilities for loading. Not only is the Diomedea a first-class freighter but she has accommodation for some sixteen first class passengers in addition to the usual steerage space.

STORM DESTROYED
WHARF'S WIRING

Ss. Dorothy Alexander Docked at 9 o'clock Last Night in Total Darkness

Docking here at 9 o'clock last night with a large cargo for discharge here the Admiral Line Ss. Dorothy Alexander found that the storm had beaten her to port and done enough damage to the wiring of the wharves to put a stop to any work that night. The lights had been put out of commission.

Unloading commenced first thing this morning. The vessel left for Seattle at 10:30 o'clock. She had 300 tons of cargo for this port, comprising raisins and other dried fruits for Mainland ports. This is the largest cargo that an Admiral Line Coast steamer has brought here for some time.

Returning from California ports many Victoria and Vancouver people departed here this morning. There were forty passengers altogether for Victoria, while a large list was being taken on to Seattle.

LASCAR SAILORS ATTRACT ATTENTION
IN SAN PEDRO, CAL.
San Pedro, Cal., Oct. 16.—Seventy-three Lascars from India, manning the British steamship Governor, in port from Calcutta on her first Pacific voyage, are attracting unusual attention along the waterfront here with their odd appearance and customs, particularly their observance of the Mohammedan ritual of praying at sundown. With the exception of the Serang, or boatswain, who earns $12 a month, the Lascars get along on a monthly wage of $7.

IS SUSPECTED OF
ATTEMPT TO BURN
SS. RUTH ALEXANDER

Kenneth Brown is Arrested
Aboard Admiral Line Boat
Last Night

Seattle, Oct. 16.—Suspected of having attempted to set fire to the coastliner Ruth Alexander of the Pacific Ss. Company, Kenneth Brown, said by the police to be a narcotic addict, was turned over to the police by officials of the steamship company, and is being held in the city jail on an open charge, pending information from Capt. N. E. Cousins, master of the steamship.

Shortly after the Ruth Alexander sailed last Saturday midnight Brown was found, a stowaway. The ship put back to Pier D, and Captain N. E. Cousins turned Brown over to Carl Strout, in charge of the pier, with instructions to have Brown arrested.

According to the information given the police by representatives of the Admiral Line, owner of the ship, Guthrie said that Brown had tried to set fire to the ship. Guthrie asked the police to arrest him. Representatives of the Admiral Line told the police that Brown was drunk when put ashore. The Ruth resumed her voyage for California ports a few moments later.

LINERS DUE HERE FROM THE ORIENT

Late advices received at the Victoria office of the Admiral Oriental Line state that the President McKinley, with a large passenger list, will dock here at sunrise on Saturday. The message states that she will reach here at 6:40 a.m. on Saturday and that she will dock at Pier "A" of the Ogden Point Docks about eight o'clock. There are about 100 passengers on board. The usual number of steerage passengers will also get off at Victoria. There is considerable cargo for this port in addition to the fifty-six bags of mail matter for the local post office.

The local office also reports that the Admiral Oriental Line President McKinley will leave outward bound for the Orient to-morrow afternoon after picking up passengers and mail matter. The ship will clear for the Far East at five o'clock.

C.P.R. Boats Due
The Empress of Russia will make port here about eight o'clock on Monday morning from the Orient with a good passenger list. The Russian sailed on October 14 and has some ninety-five saloon passengers, seventy second class and the usual number of steerage passengers. There are thirty-six steerage passengers for Victoria. Heavy shipments of wheat and flour and a large number of automobile trucks will comprise the bulk of the cargo in the President McKinley, which will sail for the Orient Wednesday.

HERCULES LEAVES FOR KENNECOTT

Carries Several of Algeria's
Crew; Storm Does Not Affect Vessels

Last night's storm did not affect the Algeria or the wrecked motorship Kennebec, according to advices received here this morning. The storm was felt only as far north as Bull Harbor, so that the Kennebec would not be touched. The Algeria would have been sheltered as she is at present at Port Stevens awaiting the arrival of the tug Nanosue.

The Pacific Salvage Company received word at noon to-day stating that the salvage steamer Hercules had departed for Skidegate to-day for the Kennebec wreck to salvage, if possible, the cargo.

Ketchikan, Oct. 16.—Twenty-five members of the crew of the motorship Kennebec, which was wrecked in Kano Inlet, a mile inside Hunter Point, at the southwest corner of Graham Island, have been landed here by cutter Unalga. Following instructions "to keep the course given" at the change of the watch Monday night, was said by Third Officer W. C. Wainwright, of the Kennebec, to be the cause of the stranding of the vessel.

"It was 11:35 p.m. Monday when we hit," said Cover. "I had gone on watch at 5 p.m., and was given the course which I understood would keep us off shore twenty-five miles. When we struck my impression was that we had collided with another ship."

"I had no idea we were so near shore. The night was not foggy or stormy. Nothing could be seen ahead, as a heavy swell was flooding inshore. I could not hear the breaking of the waves over the rocks, as the seas made too much noise against the sides of our ship. I did not sight land at any time."

Officer P. F. Kleenau, charged that Captain John Johnson, master of the Kennebec, kept the charts "locked in his desk so other officers could not see them. He declared that the wreck was due to "too much 100 per cent. Americanism and too little 100 per cent. sailors."

Shipping From San Francisco

San Francisco, Oct. 16.—The T. K. K. liner Siberia, which sailed here yesterday from the Orient with the smallest list of passengers and the least freight carried by a T. K. K. vessel this year, was reported to have thirty-three cabin passengers on the ship. The light passenger list and small amount of freight were attributed to the earthquake and fire in Japan.

The Magunook, purchased by J. D. Sprackley and Co., from the United States Shipping Board, will be converted into a motorship and re-named the Carrio. She will sail in the Pacific Coast Australia trade.

The power schooner Arctic of the H. Liebs & Co. fleet, arrived here from the far North, where she spent the summer cruising. The vessel damaged her propeller in the Arctic flows off Point Barrow, but sustained no serious damage.

The Todd Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, of Seattle, with a bid of $131,000 and a time limit of seventy-five working days, was the low bidder for re-conditioning the motorship Moonlight for the Admiral Line, it was announced here to-day. The work will include taking the engines out of the auxiliary schooner Benowa and installing them in the Moonlight.

DEATH ENDS CAREER
OF CAPT. JOHANSEN

Central Figure of Rum-Running
Exploits From Victoria and Vancouver

Andrew Johansen, the central figure of several rum running exploits who has been working out of Victoria since May and Ludwig Holman, whose bodies were found in the waters of Dumas Bay, twenty-four miles south of Seattle, on the morning of September 19, were murdered in a rum-runners' war, John C. Calhoun of Los Angeles, charged in Seattle. Calhoun made the statement before Chief of Police W. B. Severing, of Seattle, and repeated it to newspapermen in Seattle.

As master of the gas boat Cisco, Johansen was well known in Victoria and Vancouver as a daring rum runner and a fearless seaman. Last year following the sensational raid by the late Lieut.-Colonel A. B. Carey, Collector of Customs at Vancouver, accompanied by Inspector S. Harton, who also figured in the recent raid on the Cleone at Smuglers Cove off Chatham Island, it was revealed that Johansen had been carefully watched by the Victoria customs officials. On one occasion it was reported that Johansen was a customs officer on board started his engine going, and was heading away from port before the officer realized what was happening. The captain gave the officer the choice of jumping overboard immediately, and making for shore or continuing the trip.

Johansen was well known in British Columbia. He was master of the gasboat Cisco, which crated such excitement last year when Collector of Customs Carey, of Vancouver, and a party of customs men forced him at the point of guns to beach his boat, loaded with liquor, on Point Grey. Johansen was tried and finally was released, and resumed activities in whisky trade. He returned to Vancouver last February with the gasboat Erni and she lay at Coal Harbor until May, when she cleared for despatch fisheries.

In the meantime Johansen was reported to be acting as supercargo on a Canadian boat, the Erni, it is understood, being left as a guarantee to cover possible loss on the other craft. Johansen after May was working out of Victoria, it is reported.

The extent of Johansen's backing in Seattle was shown during the court proceedings in Vancouver. Unlimited funds were available to fight the case, which was followed with the keenest interest. Chased by the Government boat, Johansen defied the party whom, he stated in court, he believed to be high-jackers. An exciting battle ensued before the collector of customs was able to take a flying leap from the Government boat to the deck of the Cisco. As the Government boat closed on the Cisco, Johansen endeavored to cripple it by turning his own heavier craft sharply and smashing the bow of the pursuing vessel.

Although Johansen was released on a technicality, he was in custody for some time, but bail to any extent was offered by Seattle men.

There was a superstition on the waterfront that three deaths were bound to follow the seizure of the Cisco. They have now come, it is said. Colonel Carey died shortly after the seizure of the vessel, Major McLaurin, who assisted him, met death in a hydroplane crash a few months later at the exact spot where the Cisco was forced ashore. Now Johansen is gone.

The foundation for the superstition is not explained, but the rumor has been general among the waterfront habitués for many months.

FOR G.W.V.A. WORK

Winnipeg, Oct. 16.—To help the Dominion Command to "carry on" with its service work at Ottawa, the Winnipeg branch of the Great War Veterans' Association has assisted him, met death in a hydroplane crash a few months later at the exact spot where the Cisco was forced ashore. Now Johansen is gone.

The foundation for the superstition is not explained, but the rumor has been general among the waterfront habitués for many months.

Zam-Buk
is a Blessing
in the Home

CHILD'S TERRIBLE BURN.—Mr. A. Summers, Postmaster of Gidlow, Sask., writes: "Zam-Buk performed wonderful healing in the case of my little two-year-old boy who fell from his chair against a red-hot heater! One side of his face and his ear were just fried. I pressed the burn liberally with this soothing Zam-Buk daily. In two weeks Zam-Buk gave beautiful new skin."

FROST-BITTEN EARS HEALED.—"While going to school one morning I got both my ears badly frozen," writes Miss Mary Herrington, of Harewood, N.B. "They were swollen twice normal size and pained intensely. Fortunately I had some Zam-Buk on hand and applied it immediately to get indoors. The relief Zam-Buk gave was wonderful. It stopped pain almost immediately, and quickly took out the inflammation and swelling."

"ECZEMA ON THE HANDS" caused me three years awful suffering," writes Mr. Angus Josey, of Spry Harbor, Halifax, N.S. "The intense itching kept me awake at nights. I had tried ointments and lotions without result before I got Zam-Buk. This wonderful healer quickly removed every trace of disease."

ZAM-BUK is magical for troubles like ring worm, cold-sores, abscesses, poisoned wounds, chafing, piles, ulcers, etc. Also for itching skin, scalds and other injuries. See all druggists.

Cissie Loftus Says She Won
Her Battle; Now in the United States

New York, Oct. 16.—Returning to the American stage after an absence of nearly ten years, Cissie Loftus, English mimic, arrived yesterday on the liner Leviathan, announcing herself cured of the drug habit.

Last November cable dispatches telling of the arrest of the actress in London for alleged illegal possession of narcotics brought to the United States the first news in years of the former star of the legitimate and vaudeville stages.

"It was a terrible fight," she said of her former habit, "but I have won."

Mrs. Loftus was accompanied by Nora Bayes, American actress, who adopted a third child on her last trip to Europe.

SLOW REGISTRATION FOR VOTERS' LIST

Only Twenty Have Filled in Civic Forms to Date

Many Tardy Poll and Road Tax Payers May Lose Vote

Registrations for the civic voters' list as of this date are slow. It was reported at the City Clerk's office this morning.

Forms can be obtained which must be filled in by those who have not yet paid poll and road taxes before they can be placed on the voters' list. Up to noon to-day only twenty had filled in the declaration.

October 31 is the latest date on which householders, who have not paid the taxes mentioned, can make their payments at the City Hall and have their names placed on the list. The tax will be due after that date but payment later will result in the householders and licensees from voting at the next municipal election. Over 2,000 registered at the City Hall on the 15th.

Exemptions from poll tax are granted to householders over sixty years of age in receipt of an income of less than $100, members of the C.E.F. invalided from the service, members of the permanent force and those who have paid taxes during the armistice period, viz. the value of real property for the year 1922.

Before being placed on the list the following in the declaration must be signed:

"That I am a British subject and that I am of the full age of twenty-one years."

"That I have been a resident of the city of Victoria since the first day of January of the current year."

"That I have paid directly to the said city all rates, taxes or assessments which are not chargeable on land, and which rates, taxes and assessments are not less than $2 due by me to the said city for the current year, exclusive of water rates or taxes and license fees for dogs."

Those whose names were previously on the list and who have paid the taxes mentioned automatically remain there.

SET DATE TO START INDUSTRIAL CLASSES

Chamber of Commerce Group Donates Cup For Best Essay

By Friday, October 25, the Industrial Group of the Chamber of Commerce anticipate plans will be completed for the first party of Victoria school children to visit factories in the city for object lessons on Victoria's industries. Members of the group are compiling a list of manufacturers who will receive classes and conduct their students over the works to demonstrate the operations of their plants.

The plan has attained such proportions that it will probably be necessary at first to confine the object lessons to pupils of the High School and entrance classes. Later it is hoped that other classes and the Esquimalt and Oak Bay schools will be included.

The Industrial Group have donated a silver cup for the best essay written by a student on "Victoria Industries" after a visit to the plants.

Hitting Records Are Shattered In Series

Six Homerun Marks Fall While Two Others Are Equalled With Stengel and Ruth as Chief Record-Breakers; Each Team Hit Five Homeruns While Dugan and Young Each Made Four Hits In One Game; Irish Meusel's Unusual Feat; Failure of Nehf Yesterday Still Topic of Conversation

New York, Oct. 16.—Six world series homerun records were broken and two more were equalled in the spectacular battle between the New York Giants and Yankees, while several other hitting records were tumbled.

Casey Stengel and Babe Ruth were the chief record-breakers. Stengel's feat of supplying two winning homeruns in one series is a new feat in world series annals.

Three records fell to Ruth. Two homeruns in a single game has been accomplished three times before in series history, but never before did the wallpops come in successive innings as did Ruth's. Babe's third homer of the series, in the sixth game, broke the record of two, first set by Dougherty in 1903. Combining this trio with one he made in 1921 series, Ruth heads the best previous mark for total homeruns during the series by one club.

Five Homeruns Each.—Two club records were broken. The total of ten home runs for the contending teams is a new mark, while the rival teams with five each share the honors of shattering the former high record of three.

The record of four homeruns by both teams in a single game was duplicated in the second contest when Ruth's pair were added to blows by E. Meusel and Ward. The Yankees, with the three of this quartette also tied the club record for a single game.

Joe Dugan, who made four hits in the fifth game, and Young, who made four in the fourth game, also tied the record for most hits in a single game. Whit added his name to the list of batting heroes with a record of three successive hits, including two doubles, in as many consecutive innings in the fourth game.

One of the most unusual batting feats of any series was that of E. Meusel, who made all three of his hits off Joe Bush in the fifth game. Meusel got a single, a double and a triple and scored the Giants' only run of that game.

New York, Oct. 16.—The collapse of Arthur Nehf, the Giants' premier pitcher, in the eighth inning yesterday is still the main talk of Gotham.

For seven innings Nehf waved a magic wand over the Yank batters and it seemed that his port of duty would again restore recent hopes and keep them in the fight. Backed by the spectacular defensive work of his teammates, particularly the dynamic Frisch, he seemed to have other hit outside of Ruth's circuit.

But out of the clear sky of apparent Giant triumph came the collapse of Nehf and with him the last break in the shattered chain of McGraw's pitching staff.

From the highest peak of effectiveness, from brilliant control, Nehf went to pieces and "Roe" Ryan, who had succeeded him, failed in a valiant effort to stem the tide.

Started Harmless Enough.—Ward started the fatal eighth harmlessly enough, by flying to Kelly, but the flimsy sign of Nehf's downfall came when Schang and Scott singled in quick succession.

Sensing the break in the game, Miller Huggins, little pilot of the Yankees, duplicated the sort of strategy that earned one victory for his rival, McGraw, and three in the full force of his reserves.

Hoffmann took up the cudgels for Pennock and walked on four successive balls, Haines taking his place at first as the bases were filled.

Nehf tried gallantly to steady himself, to save the situation, but facing a new pinch-hitter, Joe Bush, batting for Whit, he failed.

Bush walked on four successive balls, and Nehf, a slight, tragic figure, walked from the box, his head down and tears in his eyes.

That passed forced in Schang, and Ryan went into the box, with the bases still full and the Yanks still two runs behind.

Ryan, unsteadied by the tenaciousness of the fight, also was wild and Scott was forced in with the second run when he walked. Dugan on four pitched balls, thus making the twelfth successive ball that the Giant moundsman had issued.

Ryan Found His Nerve.—There was a mighty roar as into this dramatic spotlight stepped Ryan, twining his all-powerful bludgeon. But, instead of further unnerving Ryan, the sight of the master mauler seemed to steady him, for the Babe let the first pitch curve squarely over the plate and fouled the second weakly. The next was a ball, but then, Ryan putting all he had into his delivery, shot one squarely across and Ruth, swinging wickedly, missed amid a thunderous outburst from the crowd.

But Ryan, safely past what seemed the hardest part of his task, faltered and Meusel caught his second pitch for a whistling single over second base.

REWARDED AT LAST

MILLER HUGGINS

Dame Fortune has at last smiled upon the midwest leader of the New York Yankees. For two years he was the victim of what many called the "strategy" of John McGraw and the dissension among his own players. This year Huggins got his team working in harmony, due in no small measure to the change of front by Babe Ruth. Yesterday saw Huggins pull some strategy that was reminiscent of McGraw and he watched his team win the fourth and deciding game of the series. Huggins is a little man and for two years had a hard battle with his team, which won American League pennants but collapsed in the world's series. He was panned unmercifully by the sports scribes in New York, but Col. Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, had implicit faith in Huggins and continued to retain him as manager. Before the Yankees went into the world's series this year he announced that Huggins had been signed to lead the team in 1924.

Kamm's Two Homers Help Win Game For Sox, Who Now Lead

Chicago, Oct. 16.—A five-run attack in the fourth inning put the White Sox out in front with a lead that never was threatened, and the Americans won the fifth game of the series, while Eddie Collins hit one of his three home runs.

Home runs were the feature of the contest. William Kamm, $100,000 third baseman purchased by the Sox from San Francisco last Spring, hit two four-baggers while Eddie Collins hit one. Friberg and Vogel hit circuit clouts for the Cubs.

LADYSMITH SOCCER PLAYER PASSES AWAY

Word has been received here of the death in Ladysmith of Joseph Travers, a member of the Ladysmith football team. He was thirty years of age and came from Alberta to join the Oyster City team, where he played in the forward line. He was born in England and leaves a wife and four small children, besides his parents, who live in Michel, B.C., with six brothers and two sisters.

BUSH IS RELEASED AS WASHINGTON MANAGER

Washington, Oct. 16.—Donie Bush will be supplanted as manager of the Washington American League baseball team next season. No successor has been chosen and no reason is given for the change.

Wiped Out Advantage

The advantage Ruth's homer in the upper right field stand had given the Yanks in the first inning was nullified by three successive hits by Frisch, Frisch and Young in the fifth inning, thus making the twelfth successive ball that the Giant moundsman had issued.

Ryan Found His Nerve.—There was a mighty roar as into this dramatic spotlight stepped Ryan, twining his all-powerful bludgeon. But, instead of further unnerving Ryan, the sight of the master mauler seemed to steady him, for the Babe let the first pitch curve squarely over the plate and fouled the second weakly. The next was a ball, but then, Ryan putting all he had into his delivery, shot one squarely across and Ruth, swinging wickedly, missed amid a thunderous outburst from the crowd.

Wednesday Leaguers To Open Season To-morrow

Two Games on Card, With Hudson's Bay Meeting Cranleigh School and Broad Street Tackling the Teamsters; Keen Fight Expected For Pendray Cup

Everything is in readiness for the opening games of the Wednesday Football League to-morrow afternoon. At a meeting of the league held last night at the Y. M. C. A. final arrangements were made. There will be two games on the card for to-morrow, the draw being as follows:

Teamsters vs. Broad Street, at the Royal Athletic Park; referee, Payne. Cranleigh House vs. Hudson's Bay, at Beacon Hill; referee, Robbins. Both games will commence at 3 o'clock.

It has been arranged to have His Worship Mayor Hayward kick off in the game at the Royal Athletic Park between Broad Street and the Teamsters, while A. J. Watson, manager of the Hudson's Bay Company, will start the ball rolling at Beacon Hill and set the Cranleigh and Hudson's Bay eleven in action.

Good Crowds Expected.—Expectations are that a good crowd of Wednesday soccer fans will turn out to witness the game as there will be a lot of curiosity over the new eleven, and the veterans will try to pick out this year's winner. Three new teams will be out for honors, as they wish to start the season off with a win. It is expected that competition for the Pendray Cup, emblematic of the Wednesday football championship, will be very keen this year as all five teams are rumored as having strong line-ups.

An excellent brand of football has been displayed in the Wednesday League during past seasons and the officials of the league are looking for a banner year.

Dark Horses

The Teamsters are the dark horses of the league and there will be great excitement when their team turns out to-morrow. They have a number of new players to show to the fans. However, Broad Street is not worrying any, as they gave a good demonstration when they held the Garrison eleven to a draw last Wednesday afternoon, on their home grounds.

Very little is known about the Cranleigh House team but by all rumors they are composed of young players and will make some of the old veterans step lively. The school eleven will be right after the scalps of the Bays to-morrow. The department store team will have a number of their last year's players in uniform.

OLD COUNTRY FOOTBALL

London, Oct. 16.—When the personnel of the Irish team, that will meet the English team in the international football match in Belfast, October 20, was published a few days ago, the inside right had not been selected. Now it is announced that Brown, of Tranmere Rovers, will play inside right for Ireland.

CRICKETERS TO MEET

A special meeting of the Victoria and District Cricket Association will be held to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock in room 317, Pemberton Building. Reports on the past season will be presented by the officers and there will be a general discussion of next year's activities.

The winner of the men's monthly medal competition, played last week, was P. Thompson with a net score of sixty-seven. The next three highest net scores of seventy-one each were made by G. L. Stephens, Captain J. F. Mathews and T. Waters.

ELECT MRS. SANDERS CAPTAIN OF UPLANDS

Mrs. Sanders was elected captain of the ladies of the Uplands Golf Club at the annual meeting of that body held last evening in the Campbell Building. Despite the inclement weather there was a good attendance, with P. G. Fowkes, president of the club, in the chair.

Miss Kinloch was elected secretary, while the committee was composed of Mrs. Staden, Miss Wolfenden and Mrs. Nickson.

FORGOT HIS LINES

"MUGGSY" MCGRAW

Something went wrong with John's "strategy" and the Giants failed to win the world's series. The trouble with McGraw's "strategy" was his pitchers, who looked like a bunch of cripples from a hospital. Outside of Art Nehf McGraw had nothing to pit against the murderous hitting of the Yankees. "Muggsy" was very anxious to win this series as it would have made his third in succession, a new record. But "strategy" is of little use unless backed up by brain and brawn. The Giants have an infield second to none and their outfielders are good, but when the pitchers fall down nothing can save a team.

This picture of McGraw was taken by Jimmy Adam, president of the Rotary Club, at St. Louis this year. Jimmy sent down his card to John and asked him to come out in the open so that he could "shoot" him. Jimmy is quite proud of his picture.

Hockey Schedule is Adopted by Leagues; Prairies Agreeable

Special to The Times

Calgary, Oct. 16.—Clubs of the Western Canada Hockey League have approved of the schedule that was drafted recently at the coast by Lloyd Turner, of the Calgary Tigers, representing the prairie group, and Frank Patrick, Pacific coast leader.

E. L. Richardson, president of the Western Canada League, stated on Tuesday morning that he had been advised by the four clubs that the plans were satisfactory, and the schedule has been adopted. It will be some time yet before the league releases the list of games for the winter season. Winnipeg will get four regular league draws this season, and it is provided that Calgary and Saskatchewan will open their games at the coast.

SEEDED PLAYERS WIN THEIR GAMES EASILY

Berkeley, Cal. Oct. 16.—Wallace Scott, of Tacoma, Pacific Northwest champion, and Manuel Alonso, champion of Spain, were the only seeded players to appear on the Berkeley club courts in the California state championship tennis tournament, and they advanced. Scott into the fourth round and Alonso into the round of eight. They are in opposite halves.

Scott won from Gervais Hillis 6-4, 7-5, and Alonso won from V. O. Jens, a San Francisco player, 6-0 6-1.

YOUNG STRIBLING IS AWARDED DECISION

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 16.—Young Stribling, the nineteen-year-old Georgia schoolboy, claimant of the light-heavyweight championship of the world, fought a ten-round bout with Tommy Burns, of Detroit, here last night. Most of the newspapermen at the ringside gave Stribling the decision.

Horse Race Is Magnet Of Sport World Now

With World's Series Over Sportdom Casts Its Eyes On Historic Race On Saturday Between Papyrus and Zev; Steve Donoghue Joins His Mount To-day; Both Horses to Get Hard Workouts From Now On; Rain Insurance Taken Out By Promoters

New York, Oct. 16.—Zev and Papyrus, who will have their day next Saturday, centered out of the sports limelight yesterday so that it might shine with full candlepower on the world's series.

Both the star of the Ranocosa stables and the English Derby winner, who are to race at Belmont Park for a $100,000 purse, exercised lightly, but no real time tests were attempted.

To-day Papyrus will get under saddle in earnest, with a stiff workout scheduled for him by his trainer, Basil Jarvis. The American colt last night wandered around his commodious stall, not knowing what to-day might bring forth, for Sam Hildreth had not whispered his training plans in his ear.

THE FIELDING FLASH

Donoghue Joins Papyrus.—The English thoroughbred to-morrow will be reintroduced to his jockey, Steve Donoghue, champion of the British turf, who will arrive on the Olympic to ride the Derby winner in the international classic. The little English rider thinks highly of his mount, as he made plain when he said with the statement that "Papyrus is a generous, game horse." Zev already is well acquainted with his rider, Earl Sande, recognized as the premier jockey on American tracks. Sande has been in the saddle since Zev's first workout out at Belmont Park, although exercise boys have been put up when the colt has not been sent romping his fastest.

Started Differently.—Although both Donoghue and Sande have the same faultless hands and an almost hypnotic power over their horses, they got their starts in very different fashion.

The American was born in Groton, S. D., and he had for his first mounts the stocky little cow ponies of the Western ranges. Sande, who now is twenty-five, raced at first at local fairs. It was not until 1917 that he got his chance to become a real jockey.

The Britisher, on the other hand, first began earning his daily bread in an English wire works, devoting his spare time to the study of horses. He now is thirty-nine and during his career on the track he has piloted five Derby winners to victory and been congratulated by the King.

Sande took his post graduate course in riding under the tutelage of Sam Hildreth, who is his trainer. Donoghue, the idol of England, got his first chance at thirteen, when he ran away from home and won a modest prize from his Derby trainer, Chester.

Donoghue has ridden for years in England and won his Derby winners were Pommer, Gay Crusader, Humourist, Captain Cuttle and Papyrus.

Donoghue will be in the saddle when Papyrus goes through his training stunts to-morrow, and it is thought the horse's true form may be demonstrated on that occasion for the first time since his arrival.

While Donoghue flies from track to track in England by aeroplane, it is expected that he will be content with automobile travel between New York and Belmont Park.

Papyrus Acclimated

Papyrus, the first foreign horse to be sent to this country for a great international event, is well acclimated and reported to be in excellent condition. Basil Jarvis, his trainer, has put him through a careful programme on the track.

Zev has also undergone an intensive training and will be fit, according to his trainers, when Earl Sande, recognized as America's leading jockey, rides him in the barrier with him.

It was Mr. Jarvis' intention when he first arrived not to send Papyrus to the American racing gate, but after watching it in operation he has decided it is enough like the one used in England that his horse, an unusually good barrier animal, can get away as quickly as any horse.

Numerous racing men are here from England for Saturday's race and there is supposed to be considerable sentiment in favor of making an annual international affair between England and America.

Have Rain Insurance

A $50,000 rain insurance policy has been taken out by the Westchester Racing Association for October 20, the day of the Zev-Papyrus race.

Under the terms of the contract the association will receive $50,000 if the rainfall between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. exceeds one-tenth of an inch.

Papyrus and Zev trace their origin to the bluest blooded racing stocks in Europe and America. Papyrus, the Derby winner, was sired by Tracey and his dam was Miss Matty, while Zev, the three-year-old champion of the U.S., is by The Finn and Miss Kearney. Both are brown colts.

Peculiarly enough they are distantly related, second or third cousins possibly—for the blood of Hermit, famous English thoroughbred, is in the lineage of each.

YORATH COMMENTS ON EDMONTON CASE

Delinquency Has Reached the Limit of Possibility; Local Comparison

Telegraphic advices from Edmonton state that City Commissioner C. J. Yorath has gone farther than his Victoria speech recently, in alluding to the tax delinquency problem in Edmonton.

He is credited with a statement that 58,000 of the 110,000 parcels of land in that city have reverted to the city, and that the number of property owners has decreased some 9,000 owing to the policy of taking over the land as taxes came into arrears.

The situation in Victoria has never presented so serious a problem as that, in spite of the pessimistic attitude to tax delinquency in this city. Here, about $5,000,000 of assessed values, or about one-eighth of the total land value assessment has reverted to the city. Assessed values are a different thing to parcels, because in a city like Edmonton there are large sub-divisions in which few of the lots have been kept free from delinquency, and as a consequence the figures have been abnormally swollen.

Mr. Yorath has written to W. G. Cameron, City Land Commissioner, supporting the policy adopted here of selling reverted lands at the market value. He declares it to be the only satisfactory basis. There are two policies used in other cities, namely of selling at the assessed value, which would be inapplicable here as discouraging bidders, and that of selling for the actual delinquent taxes, which would entail a considerable loss to the municipality, as well as discouraging bidders who would have to wait twelve months for possession, in case of redemption.

MOOSE DICTATOR TO SPEAK HERE

George N. Warde, of Mooseheart, to Give an Address at Chamber of Commerce

A meeting of exceptional interest will be held in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose.

The local lodge is being honored for the first time in some years by a visit from a representative of the Supreme Lodge in the person of George N. Warde, General Dictator of the Loyal Order of Moose, who comes direct from Mooseheart.

Mooseheart, known as the "city of childhood," is situated on the Fox River and is about twenty-five miles from Chicago on the Lincoln highway, and at the present time about 1,200 dependent children of departed Moose, many of whom are Canadians are being fed, clothed housed and educated at a cost of approximately $500 per year for each child.

This is made possible by a voluntary contribution of $2.00 per year from every member of the Order.

It is a hard and fast rule not to accept any donations from anyone not connected with the Order.

Mr. Warde will lecture on this interesting subject and will also have a few things to say regarding Mooseheart, the recently established home for the aged and infirm members of the Order, who, together with their wives, are cared for there.

Mooseheart is located on the St. John River, close to Jacksonville, Fla., but it is not the usual type of "old folks home," being a place of industry rather than charity, and its upkeep is assured by the Mooseheart Legion or second degree of the Order and by the Women of Mooseheart Legion.

In addition to the address of Mr. Warde there will be other speakers including—Rev. Clem Davies, pastor of Centennial Church, who is a member of the local lodge.

The members of the local lodge as well as the Women of Mooseheart Legion and the Junior Order of Moose will attend in a body.

A general invitation is cordially extended to members of the City Council, the Ministerial Association, fraternal and kindred bodies, the teaching fraternity and everyone who is in any way interested in child welfare.

The newly formed Moose band will give selections during the evening and solo will be rendered by a couple of well known local artists.

The meeting will be called promptly at 8 p.m. by Bro. C. E. Copeland, Dictator.

The full programme and other details will be published during the week, and in the meantime any further information can be had from Mr. J. F. Pearce, the local secretary.

Mr. Warde will arrive in the city on Friday afternoon by the Seattle boat.

He will be met by a delegation of local Moose officials and prominent members of other organizations with Mayor Hayward representing the city of Victoria.

He will be taken for a tour of the city and vicinity during the afternoon, arriving back in time to attend a regular meeting of the local lodge which will be held in the K. of P. Hall from 7 to 7:45, prior to the gathering scheduled for the Chamber of Commerce.

He leaves Victoria on Saturday morning by the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway for Nanaimo, where he will deliver a lecture in connection with the branch of the Order there.

He will later proceed to Vancouver to give another address, which will bring his Canadian visit to a close.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB DIRECTORS TO MEET

The officers and directors of the Victoria Branch, Automobile Club of British Columbia, will hold their regular monthly meeting in the Chamber of Commerce committee room at 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

President N. A. Yarrow will occupy the chair and a full attendance of the board is expected. Some important matters in connection with both local and provincial activities are included in the agenda. Members are invited to attend the meeting and bring forward any matters which they consider of interest to the organization.

TORONTO TO MAKE RAILWAY APPEAL

Toronto, Oct. 16.—The City of Toronto will appeal to the Privy Council against the award of the arbitrators to the Toronto Railway Company in connection with the city taking over the railway at the expiry of its franchise.

The award was $11,188,500. The city appealed to the First Ontario Divisional Court against this amount and the Divisional Court reduced it by $572,500, being the estimated value of certain street railway property which the city need not take over.

Mr. Fox decided he would cover his roof with tar. "That will be a good thing to keep out the water and it will be soft enough this warm weather so that their feet will stick to it and maybe their bushy tails of which they are so proud, I'll try it."

One pleasant morning not long after, when Bennie and Bobbie Squirrel came running through the woods with their pouches filled with nuts they were surprised to see on their playground Mr. Fox hard at work.

"What's he doing?" asked Bennie, running up a tree to get a better look.

"He is painting it," answered Bobbie, who was peering from behind a bunch of leaves. "He thinks that will keep us off. But as soon as it dries we can play there just as well as ever."

Mr. Fox did not pretend to see the Squirrel boys, but he knew they were there watching, and he kept right on, humming a tune as he worked.

By and by it was finished and Mr. Fox climbed down the ladder and went into the house. As he looked out of the window he saw Bennie and Bobbie running down the path, but he thought, "I shall not mind the work I did this morning."

But the next morning Mr. Fox heard shouting and knew that his up in bed and listen. "They are back," he said, for he knew it was Bennie and his brother running up

MR. FOX TARS HIS ROOF

Mr. Fox had been annoyed very much by the mischievous Squirrel boys, Bennie and Bobbie. They ran over his roof at the very hours when he wanted to sleep.

They tossed nuts and stones. Mr. Fox was sure it was stones he heard sometimes rolling over the roof. And how could anyone sleep with things rattling on a tin roof?

One nice rainy morning when Bennie and Bobbie did not come out to play Mr. Fox had had a good sleep, and he decided that it was time he set to work thinking up some way to be rid of those bad Squirrel boys for good.

"There must be some way I can drive them off my roof," thought Mr. Fox. "I might have tried to catch them, but I might just as well try to catch a lively flea as those Squirrel boys."

"And they are not the least frightened by my threats, so something must be done to the roof so they will not care to play there. Now let me see."

Mr. Fox decided he would cover his roof with tar. "That will be a good thing to keep out the water and it will be soft enough this warm weather so that their feet will stick to it and maybe their bushy tails of which they are so proud, I'll try it."

NOBODY'S LOVER

By RUBY M. AYRES

The warmth of the fire had made him drowsy, and presently he dozed off, his head upon his breast, and he had a confused, queer dream, in which he stood at the back of a great hall filled with people who separated him from Ursula, and across its width he was watching her, though she did not know he was there, and she was singing the song with which she was for ever associated in his mind.

"What will you do, love, when I am gone with white sails flowing, the sea beyond? What will you do, love, when waves divide us? And friends may chide us, for being fond."

And then in his dream her eyes met his and her voice broke suddenly, and she held her arms to him across the space that divided them, and he heard her cry his name—"Jake . . . Jake . . ."

Bennie and Bobbie were scared. "Oh, Mr. Fox," they called, as Mr. Fox's head disappeared down the chimney.

"Please, Mr. Fox, help us to get off this sticky place, and we will never come here again, honest we won't."

Mr. Fox was laughing so hard he almost tumbled off the ladder, but he was very sober when he looked over the chimney-top again. "What's that you said? Promise never to come on my roof again? All right, I'll see what can be done."

QUADRA STREET SCHOOL

Parents of pupils of Quadra Street School yesterday met members of the teaching staff to determine upon some plan to free the school from existing debt on the piano. The conference resulted in the idea of holding a bazaar and tea on the afternoon of Wednesday, December 5.

A meeting to arrange details will be held in the school auditorium on Wednesday, October 17, at three o'clock, and all friends and parents interested in making this effort a success are invited to attend.

The two men traveled back to London that afternoon.

"You'll stay with us till we can fix things up, of course," he asked; but Jake said no; he would prefer to go to his own rooms.

"Dash it all! You've got your own way so far," he protested. "What are you afraid of—that I shall disappear again or something?"

"Elsa hoped you would come to us, that was all," Spicer answered. "There's one other point," Jake said, as they neared London. "If you should see . . . Miss Lorrimer—please don't mention my name."

"Right!"

"And if you'll just tell your wife," Spicer said, "Right!" again dejectedly. He had set his heart on bringing these two together, but he knew Jake well enough to know how fatal such an attempt would be.

"And another thing," Jake said presently, "though you've bullied me into this comfort voyage, I'm going alone. See? I'm not a blooming kid that I need chaperoning round the world. It's thundering good of you to have suggested it, but I can't allow you to make such a sacrifice. You've got your own lives to live, you and Elsa, and I'm not butting in."

"My dear chap, we should both enjoy it," Spicer protested.

"Humph! Well, I shouldn't. No, I'm going alone. I've got rather fond of my own society lately." He looked down at the terrace at his feet.

"You might give this poor little chap a home, though, if you don't mind, he added, as he stooped and patted the dog's rough coat.

"Elsa will look after him till you come back," Spicer said.

But one thought crossed both their minds that perhaps Jake never would come back.

"I'll go and see Simpson in the morning," Jake said presently. He spoke quite indifferently. The unexpected legacy was of no interest to him; he would have found it difficult to explain why he had allowed himself to be persuaded into going away by Spicer.

He had fallen into an almost chronic state of indifference and depression during the last few weeks, and the one desire at the back of his mind was to be left alone.

"And when shall I see you again?" Spicer asked as they parted in London.

Jake shrugged his shoulders. "Oh, to-morrow. I'll come to lunch if I may."

He felt he was behaving churlishly, but he could not help himself. It was a relief to think that in a short time he would be out of England—away from all this well-meant supervision, away from all possibility of encountering Ursula.

He felt more cheerful than he had done for a long time when he called on Simpson Junior the following morning.

"Thought I was lost, eh?" he asked. "No—no such luck! Spicer unearthed me, and told some romantic story of a further legacy, so I've come to see about it."

Mr. Simpson told him the details. "And I sincerely hope," he added, smiling, that you will not go to ask me to be a party to any more

FOR A MOMENT—although he knew that it was far better they should not meet.

One morning he ran across Henry March in the street. They almost came into collision round a corner, and Mr. March began to stare at him with a grim smile. He had heard excellent reports of Ursula already, and was beginning to feel rather proud of his niece now he was quite sure that she would cost him nothing.

"Rat-trap! Haven't seen you for ever so long. Well, how are you?" Jake took his offered hand reluctantly. He was quite well, he said, wondering why the elder man stared so. He did not realize how much he had changed since the night he dined at this man's house.

"Of course, you've heard that that niece of mine is going to set the Thames on fire?" Henry March said, with a grim smile. He had heard excellent reports of Ursula already, and was beginning to feel rather proud of his niece now he was quite sure that she would cost him nothing.

"Yes—so I hear," Jake answered. There was a little pause. "I hope she is well," he added stiffly.

"Works too hard, I think," was the answer. "Always so obstinate, you know. Oh, yes, I see her sometimes—had lunch with her the other day. You must go along and call, if you haven't done so already."

He was positive that Jake saw a good deal of Ursula. "I can give you her address if you don't know it," he added artfully.

"I have it, thanks," Jake answered. "Humph! Well—glad to have seen you," said Henry March, went on his way. Next time he saw Ursula he told her of his meeting with Jake. "The chap looked like a sick dog," he said bluntly. "But I dare say you've seen him since I have."

SUGGEST DANCING PAVILION AT LAKE

Proposal For Elk Lake Mentioned to City Council

Announcement was made to the City Council last evening that an application will be made for a piece of land at Elk Lake, near the East Road, for the purpose of erecting a dancing pavilion, bathing place and similar equipment for a resort. In view of the fact that the council is promoting a clause in the Private Bill for the purpose of obtaining power to lease land in Elk Lake watershed for such purposes, it was suggested that if the powers sought should be inadequate to provide for the lease, provision should be made in the Private Bill to cover any eventualities of that nature.

On the motion of Alderman Todd, the question was referred to the Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee for report and recommendation.

Health Report

The death rate in Victoria during September was the lowest of any month so far this year, the monthly report made by Dr. Arthur G. Price, City Medical Health Officer, showed. The rate per thousand was only 8.6, while in January it was 14.8. The birth rate last month was 26.2 per thousand, this being exceeded by July and August. The marriage rate of 9.6 per thousand was beaten by a number of other months. The infant mortality was 48.5 per thousand births.

The report stated that there were thirteen cases of scarlet fever here during September among residents of the city, while six patients from outside districts were admitted to the isolation-hospital. There were two cases of diphtheria reported, both being infected outside the city.

Giving a warning as to smallpox, Dr. Price said: "I must warn that smallpox is threatening to be epidemic. It is prevalent in many places in the Province, and since the commencement of the present month (October), they have been more cases reported in the neighboring municipalities, one of which is that of an Indian and two of those of children attending school, one of whom traveled on street cars while the rash was visible. Dr. Price recommended a careful respect for health regulations."

Detention Home

The council took no action with regard to a request from the Children's Aid Home for the provision of a separate institution for detention home cases.

It was stated that only a few cases of this character occur annually, and Alderman Harvey, representative of the council on the home committee, said that there was no intermingling of the two classes of inmates, but some members of the committee thought a separation of the cases should be made.

Alderman Sangster declared he could see no reason for the expense suggested at this time.

Church Tax Case

On recommendation of the finance committee the council passed on the question of the James Bay Methodist Church taxes to the Legislature committee for report.

Purchase Bonds

The council authorized the purchase from R. P. Clark & Company of $20,000 Alberta Great Waterways Railway Company 5 per cent bonds maturing January 1, 1959, at the price of $91.50 and accrued interest, the yield to be 5.55.

To Sell Poppies

Permission to sell poppies on the streets of the city on Saturday, November 10, was granted the Armistice Period Committee by the council.

MAY HAVE NEW INDUSTRY HERE

Oil Refinery Plant to be Located on Old Reserve

The Dominion Refinery made application to the City Council last evening for permission to operate an oil refinery plant on the Indian Reserve.

This is the project to which allusion was made in The Times recently. It is suggested by W. R. Finlay, the director, that the steel tanks would be of permanent character.

The letter was referred to the Building Inspector and Fire Chief for report. The proposal calls for a capital of $110,000, and an estimated cost of the plant of 250 to 350 barrels daily capacity of $28,400. Tankage capacity would cost $47,400, four per cent for organization $2,600, reserve stock $30,000, and $20,000 for operating capital, a total of $109,000.

ELECTION "PLANS" GIVE PREMIER A GOOD LAUGH

Vancouver "Announcement" Interests Attorney-General and Hon. John Hart

Premier Oliver and other members of the Government were amused over the announcement made on Sunday in Vancouver that a Provincial election will be called in January, a month after the next session of the Legislature prorogues.

They laughed over the "announcement" that Attorney-General Manson was to enter Vancouver, lead the Government ticket there at the next election and become the ministerial representative of that city.

The Premier said that these "announcements" were so far from being accurate that the man who made them ought to be traveling around with Mr. Bowser, Conservative opposition leader, as there was as much fact in them as some of the wild things Mr. Bowser has been saying. The "announcement" gave the Premier a good laugh.

Attorney-General Manson said he didn't know whether it was worth while saying anything or giving out any statement about the part which referred to him. He laughed and declared he felt highly honored at being the one who had been picked, according to this "announcement," to lead Vancouver.

One part in the "announcement" Mr. Manson made reference to was that which said: "The distribution of portfolios is rather unequal just at present. The small city of Prince Rupert has two ministers." Mr. Manson made it plain that he is not the representative of Prince Rupert at all, but of Omicameca, which comprises the central and northern part of the Province.

The "announcement" also says that the Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, may retire from public life to devote himself to his private business. This rumor has been spread around Victoria on several occasions, but has always been denied. The rumor has apparently just now worked its way across the water to the mainland. The only foundation for it, it was explained to-day, is that Mr. Hart has on several occasions had flattering offers made to him to re-enter private business.

It was said at the Parliament Buildings to-day that there was no possibility of a Provincial general election as early as January. Some time not earlier than May is still the time being looked forward to in organization circles. One political authority said to-day that the election might not even come until September.

There are lots of rumors outside of the Parliament Buildings as to a beer plebiscite at the next election, but nothing is "known" about it in official circles.

ENDORSE PLAN TO ESTABLISH BUREAU

British Columbia Board of Trades Favor Victoria Resolution

Endorsement of the resolution on Tourist Trade sent out by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce has been given by the Associated Boards of Trade of the Fraser Valley, the Princeton Board of Trade, the Chilliwack Board of Trade, the Merritt Board of Trade, the Sidney Board of Trade, and the Nanaimo Board of Trade, letters read at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Directors showed.

The resolution calls for the establishment by the Provincial Government of an expanded Information Bureau which would be composed of men representative of different portions of the Province acting in an honorary capacity. Among their duties would be the distribution and publication of such material as they think advisable and to act generally in an advisory capacity on advertising and generally promote tourist trade.

SHOULD SEEK SOUTHERN TOURISTS

Representative of Californian Hotels Makes Plea For Publicity

That Victoria and Vancouver Island can secure a very much larger share of the tourist travel which annually comes to California is the opinion of Colin MacDonald, representing D. M. Linnard, lessee of four leading hotels in Pasadena. Mr. Linnard also controls the Fairmont and Whitcomb Hotels in San Francisco.

Mr. MacDonald has come into this territory to encourage winter travel of British Columbians to California. He told the Times that the California hotel men were anxious to swing travel northerly into this area, which they were ready to admit had attractions of a very special type, and an individuality, which would appeal to the best class of American travelers.

Mr. MacDonald believes that recognized accredited representatives stationed in San Francisco and Los Angeles could do wonders in swinging travel this way, to the advantage of all interests. That suggestion he will lay before the Victoria Island Publicity Bureau while in the city.

"Our great idea," he stated, "is to get the tourist round the circle, taking in California either going or coming from his home." This is Mr. MacDonald's first visit to Victoria, and he is greatly impressed with the attractions of Vancouver Island.

SUPPORT PLAN FOR TAX CO-OPERATION

Co-operation in taxes between Dominion, Provincial and Municipal Governments urged at the recent convention of the Canadian Tax Conference of the Citizens Research Institute of Canada, whose Resolution was presented to the Chamber of Commerce, directors yesterday was endorsed.

A national tax conference for the delineation of fields of taxation as between Provincial and Dominion Governments, inquiry in the respective costs of collecting, of taxes co-operation in obtaining and exchange of information and in any feasible ways with regard to taxation was advocated in the communication.

The letters have gone forward to the Premiers of the various provinces, said Harold L. Brittain, director of the Institute, who said the various Boards of Trade could render a great service if they could co-operate with the Canadian Tax Conference of the Citizens Research Institute.
